Artist statement & biography

Nick Calero works with contrast, shadow and selective color to explore identity, resilience and a sense of place. His photographs move between architecture, landscape and human presence, giving familiar subjects a distinct visual weight. His fine art practice is presented alongside commercial product, lifestyle, branding and editorial photography.

Born in Cali, Colombia, Calero comes from a family of artists with connections to Florida, New York, Portugal and Colombia. His background in public service and his experience of travel inform a photographic practice shaped by light, atmosphere and cultural perspective. He is based in Gainesville, Florida and serves clients nationwide.
